

The Bay County Library System presents...

Booked for Lunch

Fall 2009

Bring a lunch and enjoy lecture by authors and reviewers on a variety of interesting books!

Dessert and beverages provided by the Friends of the Bay County Libraries.

DATE	PRESENTER	PROGRAM
October 9 Noon - 1:00 pm	Kristina Riggle (Author)	Former Bay City Times Reporter, Kristina Riggle, presents her fiction book, Real Life and Liars , the story of a family dealing with love, heartbreak and change.
October 16 Noon - 1:00 pm	Ron Bloomfield (Author)	Ron Bloomfield, Director of Operations/ Chief Historian for the Bay County Historical Society, presents his non-fiction book, Maritime Bay County .
October 23 Noon - 1:00 pm	Dave Rogers (Author)	Dave Rogers, local historian and contributor to mybaycity.com, presents his book Apostles of Equality: The Birneys, the Republicans and the Civil War , featuring Michigan and Bay City as focal points.

More Speakers & Topics...

Speakers & Topics continued...

DATE	PRESENTER	PROGRAM
October 30 Noon - 1:00 pm	Mardi Link (Author)	Michigan author Mardi Link presents her true crime book Isadore's Secret, a story about sin, murder and confession in a northern Michigan town.
November 6 Noon - 1:00 pm	Nancy Vader-McCormick (Reviewer)	Dealta College professor Nancy Vader-McCormick reviews The Last Lecture by Randy Pausch, a terminally ill Computer Science professor whose last lecture taught about overcoming obstacles and seizing every moment in life.
November 13 Noon - 1:00 pm	Leon Katzinger (Reviewer)	Leon Katzinger, Retired Bay City Public Schools educator, reviews If Not Now, When? by Colonel Jack Jacobs, one of only 100 surviving medal of honor winners. He received this award for bravery in the Tet Offensive during the Viet Nam War.

Kantzler Community Room
Alice & Jack Wirt Public Library
500 Center Ave., Bay City
www.baycountylibrary.org

For more information, call Esther at 662-2381 ext. 210.

NO RESERVATIONS REQUIRED